

AUDITING PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

BACKGROUND CHECKS:

State Auditor General Eugene DePasquale's audit reveals that four years after Jerry Sandusky's child sex assault conviction, PSU still fails to ensure 100 percent of background checks are completed.

BY THE NUMBERS

Audit team's statistical sampling revealed

3 of the 76 employees

(around 4 percent) did not have any background checks conducted.

That's potentially 962 out of 24,382 missing background checks in one year - four years after the Sandusky conviction.

8 PERCENT:

57 of 732

youth camps had an employee without proper clearances on file

YOUTH CAMP BACKGROUND CHECKS

Without proper clearances, Penn State University could be exposing children to people who may have disqualifying clearances.

