

STATE of the CHILD

Upcoming report will examine the safety of at-risk children & assess the state of Children & Youth caseworkers across Pennsylvania

SPECIAL REPORT: STATE OF THE CHILD

Auditor General Eugene DePasquale's special report will evaluate the job stresses for intake caseworkers, including the impact of high turnover rates and minimal training, and it will offer recommendations to improve the quality of care that at-risk children receive in Pennsylvania.

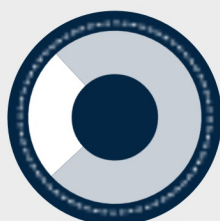

2015: UNITED STATES

3,300,000

children were the subject of a child protective services investigation of all child abuse victims are younger than 3 years old

> 25%

2015: PENNSYLVANIA

40,590

cases of suspected child abuse were reported – a 39% increase over 2014

66

of Pennsylvania's 67 counties received more reports in 2015 than 2014