

11th Annual Financial Literacy Scholarship

Attention 9th through 12th Grade Students and Teachers!

To help further financial literacy education among 9-12th grade students in the Commonwealth, Harrisburg University of Science and Technology, in partnership with Pennsylvania Department of the Auditor General and Members 1st Federal Credit Union, is conducting a Commonwealth-wide Financial Literacy Essay contest, entitled...

“WHAT DOES FINANCIAL LITERACY MEAN TO ME?”

This contest is for any student in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in grades 9-12. Submissions can include a short essay or poem on what financial literacy means to you. First prize will be $2,500; second prize is $1,500; third prize is $1,000. Three honorable mentions at $500 each will also be awarded. Also, all who enter the competition and then enroll at Harrisburg University as full-time students will receive an additional one-time $1,000 tuition scholarship.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE | MARCH 17, 2024

Submit online at HarrisburgU.edu/HUFinancialLiteracy

Questions? Send to Jessica Warren of Harrisburg University: jwarren2@HarrisburgU.edu

Jessica Warren

Financial Literacy Contest Coordinator

Harrisburg University of Science and Technology

326 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101

Winners will be announced in April 2024 in time for Financial Literacy Month in Pennsylvania.

In Partnership with Harrisburg University, Pennsylvania Department of the Auditor General and Members 1st Federal Credit Union

