Auditor General DePasquale Releases Audit for Perkiomen Valley School District in Montgomery County

HARRISBURG – Auditor General Eugene DePasquale today announced the release of a school audit for Perkiomen Valley School District in Montgomery County.

“Pennsylvania schools remain closed due to the coronavirus, but my audit team continues to work remotely with school officials to keep audits moving forward,” DePasquale said. “My audits help ensure every available dollar of education funding is focused on students to improve their learning experience.”

The Department of the Auditor General examines the records of school districts, charter schools, intermediate units, and area vocational-technical schools. The audit assessments include whether school entities received the state subsidies and reimbursements to which they were entitled, accurately managed taxpayer funds, and complied with ethics codes. The audits also determine whether teachers and administrators were properly certified for the positions they held during the audit period.
